The High Life, Fine Sorties

Wish to throw an above average birthday bash? Or a cocktail party above and beyond all destination weddings? Rent a Falcon 2000 or a Challenger 604. At three lakh rupees an hour, the price tag may take the air out of your lofty plans. But if it doesn't, get in touch with Baron Aviation, the country's newest luxury air charter service based in Mumbai (baronaviation.com).

Those left with more than loose change after that can also sign up with the Swiss luxury business air charter operator, VisaJet, for a spin in one of its sleek Bombardier aircrafts. The airline is now selling precious flying hours to some of India's deepest pockets (visajet.com). Clearly, there's a large cache of Indian jetsetters ('High Net Worth fliers' is what they are officially, respectfully referred to as) on the private radar.
